I am Hammy the Hamster.
I live with my mother Henrietta, my father Harry,
my sister Hachi, and my brother Hal.

We live in South America and you can't miss our home.

It is the burrow under
the trees that look like the letter H.

When we are out during the day, we are very careful so we aren't caught.

We might get trapped and become
someone's pet.

So we are mostly out after dark.

We like to eat seeds
and fruit and can carry
it back home in our pouches.

Our cheeks have built
in shopping bags.

Just like you, we like to play and have fun.

An illustration of two teddy bears running through a lush green forest. The bear in the front is wearing a blue vest over a white shirt and red pants. The bear behind it is wearing a pink tank top and red pants. They are running along a path towards a bright, glowing light source in the distance, which casts long shadows on the ground. The forest is filled with large green leaves and plants.

We have fun running into the light and chasing our shadows on the leaves.

Last night Hachi and I found this thing. When you pushed a button, it lit up like the sun.

We like to climb things and explore.

Our cousins Lester, Larry, and Lorain live in the city. They are someone's pet. They sent us this picture and said they had a lot of fun but missed playing with us.

Lester said he liked
people.

He always had food
and water and lots
of toys to play with.

He even likes to
take a ride in the pocket of his people
friend, Billy.

I might be your pet
some day.

If I ever become
your pet, I hope you
take good care of
me because I will do
all I can to be your friend.

Adios Amigos.
